"Making the Connection"
Hamilton Harbour Waterfront Trail
- Millennium Project

Official Opening - July 1, 2000

On July 1, 2000 the City of Hamilton will be "making the connection" with the official opening of the Hamilton Harbour Waterfront Trail. The trail from Bayfront Park to the Desjardins Canal and Princess Point will be fully accessible and meet the needs of all users. The trail will not only connect two very distinctive neighbourhoods but will connect to the RBG trail network, Lake Ontario Trail, the world-renowned Bruce Trail, and the Trans Canada Trail.

An opening ceremony for this Millennium project is planned for Saturday, July 1, 2000 at 3:00 p.m. at Bayfront Park (Bay Street North and Harbourfront Drive) and will include:

- |   |                       |
|---|-----------------------|
| ♦ opening remarks                       | ♦ live entertainment  |
| ♦ guest speakers                        | ♦ people mover        |
| ♦ "Our Millennium" song by Jude Johnson | ♦ food and beverages  |
| ♦ Harold Namaro Dixieland Jazz Band     | ♦ and much, much more |

The opening is followed by Canada Day Celebrations and fireworks at Bayfront Park at dusk. The Hamilton Harbour Waterfront Trail Opening is part of "Canada Day in Hamilton" – a variety of activities happening throughout the City. Take the free Canada Day Events HSR shuttle from noon 'til midnight. Board the shuttle at City Hall, Gage Park, Gore Park, and Bayfront Park.

LOCATION MAP:

For more information on the Hamilton Harbour Waterfront Trail Official Opening, contact the City of Hamilton, Department of Public Works and Traffic, Parks Division, (905) 546-2409.
